Sonnets are full of love, and this my to me

To her whose heart is my heart's quiet home,

I learnt love-lore that is not troublesome,
Whose service is my special dignity,
And she my loadstar while I go and come
And so because you love me, and because
I loved you, Mother, I have woven a wreath
Of rhymes where with to crown your honoured name,
In you not fourscore years can dim the flame
Of love, whose blessed glow transcends the laws
Of time and change and mortal life and death
