feeds, dies. This leaves scar tissue — it may be no larger than a small marble, but it can be half the size of a tennis ball. How serious the trouble is depends on the size and position of the plugged artery.

- b) The mountain, the massive rock, the storm-tried oak, all speak to us of power, because of their combined solitary grandeur and defiant fixity while the shifting sand, the yielding twig, and the waving reed speak to us of weakness, because they are movable and non-resistant, and are utterly useless when detached from their fellows.

- c) Politically and economically India faces many problems of great difficulty, and no one can forecast her future with any certainty. But it is safe to predict that whatever the future may be, the Indians of relatives had gathered in the cities, setting up stalls, manufacturing simple articles, trying to make a living in markets already overcrowded. They lived in cloth and grass sheds that lined the streets.

The peasants among these refugees had been accustomed to little all their lives for the annual income of an agricultural family does not on coming generations will not be unconvincing and self-conscious copies of Europeans, but will be men rooted in their traditions, and aware of the continuity of their culture.
